

A bald eagle shattered the windshield of a Schweizer 300 helicopter at 2,000 feet AGL in Minnesota, 3 June 2007. The passenger was knocked unconscious and suffered cuts and bruises. Pilot landed the aircraft safely with the dead eagle at his feet. Photo, Chris Cooper, Hummingbird Helicopters.

EXHIBIT

MORRIS #22

731818