Kendall County Historic Preservation Commission Announces Opening

The Kendall County Historic Preservation Commission is accepting applications to fill one (1) opening for a Commissioner whose term will expire in May 2020.

Special consideration will be given to architects, attorneys, local historians, architectural historians, engineers, real estate professionals knowledgeable in historic preservation, planners, archaeologists, urban designers, financiers, building trades professionals and applicants with an interest in the preservation of community character.

The Historic Preservation Commission is comprised of five (5) citizen appointees who have special knowledge or training in fields closely related to historic preservation. Commissioners serve without compensation. The Commission is a recommending body to the County Board and has certain powers and authorities designated to the Commission by the County Board.

The Commission meets the third Wednesday of each month at 7:00 P.M. Meetings are held in the County Board Room located on the second floor (Rooms 209 & 210) of the County Administration Building, 111 W. Fox Street, Yorkville, IL 60560. More information about the Kendall County Historic Preservation Commission can be found at <http://www.co.kendall.il.us/transparency/planning-building-zoning/historic-preservation-commission/>.

Interested residents should submit an application to Scott Gryder, County Board Chairman, care of the Office of Administrative Services, 111 W. Fox Street, Room 316, Yorkville, IL 60560.
