Kendall County Sheriff’s Office Investigates Traffic Crash

On December 25, 2017, at approximately 3:31pm, the Kendall County Sheriff’s Office responded to the 13000 block of Galena Road in Little Rock township, for a report of a two vehicle head on traffic crash involving injuries.

Initial investigation determined that a 2003 Chevrolet Trailblazer, operated by 32 year old male Savaughn Strickland from the 0-100 block of Loucks Street in Aurora, was traveling west on Galena Road. Strickland’s trailblazer collided with a 2004 Chevrolet Trailblazer being operated by 80 year old female Janice S. Armstrong from 1600 block of Delray Drive in Aurora.

Strickland was transported to Good Samaritan Hospital by Bristol Kendall Paramedics in critical condition. Strickland was cited for improper lane usage, operating an uninsured motor vehicle, driving while license revoked and failure to reduce speed.

Douglas Duffy, a 58 year old male from Sandwich, an occupant of Strickland’s vehicle was transported to Rush Copley by Little Rock Fox Paramedics then flown out to Loyola Medical Center in critical condition.

Ashley Robinson, a 27 year old female from Aurora, an occupant of Strickland’s vehicle was transported by Little Rock Fox paramedics to Rush Copley in Aurora then flown out to Loyola Medical Center in critical condition.

An 8 year old female juvenile from Aurora, an occupant of Strickland’s vehicle was transported by Big Rock Paramedics to Valley West Hospital in Sandwich.
Armstrong was transported by a helicopter to Good Samaritan Hospital in critical condition.

Cassie Armstrong, a 55 year old female, an occupant of Armstrong’s vehicle was transported by Little Rock Fox Paramedics in critical condition.

The Kendall County Sheriff’s Office was assisted by the Plano Police Department on scene. The traffic crash remains under investigation.
