Kendall County Sheriff’s Office Investigating Death
(Update (06/28/2018 at 2:30 p.m.))

The Kendall County Sheriff’s Office continues the investigation into the death of Amanda Stanton, a 26 year old female who was found deceased in the area of Plainfield Road and Plainsman Court on Sunday June 24, 2018 likely as a result of being struck by a motor vehicle.

Previous media releases identified the suspect vehicle as a 2004-2006 silver/gray Chrysler Pacifica. This information led to a great amount of public support and assistance in locating the suspect vehicle. The Kendall County Sheriff’s Office would like to express our gratitude to community members that worked with us providing information and tips. Several dozen public tips were received with information about possible sightings or the location of the suspect vehicle. We have investigated all the information that was provided to the Kendall County Sheriff’s Office by members of the community. One of these public tips led investigators in locating and recovering the suspect vehicle, a silver 2006 Chrysler Pacifica.

The recovery of this vehicle has developed multiple leads which investigators are diligently following up with at this time. This ongoing partnership between the Kendall County Sheriff’s Office and the community we serve has proven to be invaluable. When members of the public take the time to assist us and work with Law Enforcement, it enables us to provide better services and results to the communities we serve. We would like to thank the community for your vigilance and encourage you to continue your support of law enforcement in helping to keep our communities safe.

Anyone with additional tips or information regarding this incident can email detectives@co.kendall.il.us or call (630)553-5856. Callers who wish to remain anonymous can contact the Kendall County Crimestoppers at (630)553-5999.
