PRESS RELEASE

February 2, 2010

For more information contact:
Eric Weis, State’s Attorney
Kendall County State’s Attorney Office
(630)553-4157

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kendall County State’s Attorney Eric Weis announced this week that his office is hosting an informational meeting about the establishment of the Kendall County Juvenile Justice Council. This meeting is open to representatives of a community youth service providers, local law enforcement, juvenile justice agencies, schools, local businesses and community organizations who may be interested in the possible appointment to the council. The purpose of this council is to provide a forum for the development of a community based interagency assessment of the local juvenile justice system; to develop a county juvenile justice plan for the prevention of juvenile delinquency; and to make recommendations to the county board for more effective utilization of existing community resources in dealing with juveniles who are delinquents, truants or juveniles expelled or suspended from school

Please plan to join us at the Kendall County Courthouse jury assembly room located at 807 W. John St. in Yorkville on Friday, February 19, 2010 at 3:00 p.m. for this important and informative meeting. Please R.S.V.P. to Assistant State’s Attorney Brenda Karales at 630/553-4157 if you are able to attend.