

The next election to be held in the County of Kendall is the:

CONSOLIDATED ELECTION of APRIL 2, 2019

As of January 17, 2019 Kendall County had recorded 79,767 active registered voters. This figure includes Kendall County voters whose addresses are in the City of Aurora and who were formerly counted within the boundaries of the now defunct Aurora Election Commission. These individuals are located in Oswego precincts 37, 38 and 39.

We strongly urge all Kendall County voters to check their Kendall County Election Day polling location and registration status prior to Election Day. You may contact the Clerk's Voter Registration Office at 630-553-4105 or the Kendall County Clerk's office at 630-553-4104 if you have questions.

On this Election & Voter Information page, are Voter Information quick links, which will allow registered persons to look up their Polling Place location and ballot information as they become available.

Under Precincts & Locations are precinct maps and lists as well as the GIS Voter Precinct Viewer. Click on the viewer and enter the address in the white box, then click on Locate. Information, along with a map showing the residence and polling place, will appear on the screen.

Since County voter information must be forwarded to the State, another option you may use is to check your registration online at the State Board of Elections website: www.elections.il.gov under "Voters" followed by "Am I Registered to Vote in Illinois?"
